About the Property

A Sanctuary of Possibility. Beautifully maintained and stunning all-brick church located in the heart of downtown Amsterdam. This impressive three-story property offers over 7,500 square feet of versatile space and timeless architectural charm. The main level features a grand sanctuary with a beautiful altar, elegant pendant lighting, and striking stained-glass windows that fill the space with natural light. Additional levels include multiple offices, meeting rooms, and gathering spaces, offering flexibility for a variety of uses. The lower level includes a fully equipped kitchen and a spacious banquet hall, ideal for community events, receptions, or private functions. The exterior has lot of green space as the property goes block to block. This property provides endless potential to continue its use as a church or be repurposed for residential, daycare, event, or creative use. Centrally located with excellent visibility, this historic building presents a rare opportunity to own a landmark property with unlimited possibilities. Public water/sewer. Need more space? The property also has a 4 bed 1.5 bath on the property that can be included, but is currently listed separately.
