

Shady Lane

This map is intended to show wetland areas and their approximate relation to the subject site. These wetland and other features were mapped using sub-meter GPS technology and have a standard deviation of 1 meter $\pm$ . This does not constitute a boundary survey and should not be relied upon for determination of property lines. The approximate property lines indicated on the drawing are based on the description provided by the client.