We're affluent and family-oriented, with a country flavor. We live outside the city, but close enough for our professional jobs. Both parents work to support our growing children, and we love time-saving innovations like online banking and housekeeping services.

- » Education: 40.5% college graduates; more than 72% with some college education.
- » High labor force participation rate at 71%; two out of three households include two plus workers.

New Mixed-Use Retail & Office in Powder Springs

Located 25 miles northwest of Atlanta, Powder Springs is your hometown destination for outdoor family fun and recreation. The beautiful historic downtown and new Thurman Springs Park is host to numerous events, concerts, shopping, and has connecting trails and routes to the popular Silver Comet Trail. Other Powder Springs attractions include: The Seafood Festival, Skint Chestnut Brewery, the Seven Springs Museum, the nationally known Cobb County BMX park, McEacheren sports and arts complex, integrated city bike and pedestrian trails, and our many recreational parks. In addition to our local attractions, Powder Springs is in close proximity to Cobb County and Metro Atlanta tourism attractions, like Six Flags and Sleepy Hollow Farms.
