Property Description

BKREA has been retained on an exclusive basis to arrange for the sale of 11 East 78th Street ("The Property"), a 25' wide elevator building with approximately 11,750 gross square feet. The Property features 16 residential units, including a mix of 1 three-bedroom apartment, 8 one-bedroom apartments, and 7 studio apartments. 81% of the units are Free Market with 3 rent stabilized units, offering a compelling opportunity to increase revenue as market rents continue to rise.

Ideally situated on the north side of East 78th Street, between Fifth Avenue and Madison Avenue, the property is just steps away from Central Park and The Metropolitan Museum of Art, making it an attractive location for residents.

The Property is ideal for a user buyer who is interested in occupying the three bedroom penthouse, which features its own washer-dryer and a private outdoor space.

11 East 78th Street is situated on a quiet block in Manhattan's Upper East Side. Close to Central Park, and Northwell Hospital. The popular PS-6 and prestigious private schools such as Rudolf Steiner, Dalton, Spence, St. Bernard's, and Nightingale are all within a short walking distance. The property is conveniently accessible by the 77th Street 6 train, the 2nd Avenue Q train at 83rd Street, and the 4, 5, 6 train at 86th Street.

The immediate vicinity of The Property offers popular dining spots like Serafina and local favorite, Sant Ambroeus along with luxury retailers such as Veronica Beard, Vera Wang and Carolina Herrera.

Positioned in a prime Upper East Side location, 11 East 78th Street is poised to benefit from strong demand drivers, appealing to investors looking for a well-located property with user upside potential.

Neighborhood Overview

Stretching from East 59th Street to East 96th Street and bounded by Fifth Avenue on the west and the East River on the east, the Upper East Side stands out as one of Manhattan's most elegant neighborhoods. Known for its mix of grand townhomes and its stunning high-rise apartment buildings, the area is one of the most desirable residential enclaves in Manhattan. The neighborhood is enriched by several cultural attractions contributing to its refined atmosphere, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art (The Met), the Guggenheim Museum, and the popular Frick Collection which is in the process of completing its $160 million expansion project.

The Upper East Side is home to a plethora of educational institutions, making it a popular choice for families seeking top-tier education for their children. These schools include, but are not limited to, PS-6, Rudolph Steiner, Dalton, Spence, St. Bernard's, and Nightingale. The area caters to a diverse range of diners, accommodating residents for all occasions. For people looking to grab a fine dining experience before checking out popular galleries and museums, The Mark by Jean-Georges and Sushi Noz offer tempting options. For parents looking to feed their kids with a quick bite, more casual restaurants such as 3 Guys, JG Melon, E.A.T., and EJ's Luncheonette have been staples of the neighborhood for years. Additionally, residents who enjoy cooking can shop at local markets such as Butterfield Market, Citarella, and Whole Foods.

Moreover, the Upper East Side is credited as the premier shopping area in the world and is home to an array of both luxurious designers as well as small boutique shops. Along Madison Avenue, shoppers could indulge in stores such as Prada, Chanel, and Maison Goyard. Furthermore, the area is surrounded by ample green space and parks. Residents enjoy easy access to Central Park, a sprawling park in the heart of Manhattan, offering opportunities for either recreational activities or relaxing picnics. Additionally, runners and bikers could enjoy the stunning views along the East River, connecting the Upper East Side to other popular neighborhoods. Overall, the Upper East Side has and will continue to be a desirable neighborhood inspiring the development of new projects.

Transit Overview

The property is ideally located within walking distance of several convenient transportation options. Just 0.6 miles away, the IRT Lexington Avenue Line 4 and 5 trains on 86th Street connect you from the Bronx to Brooklyn while the 6 train just three blocks away provides easy access from 125th Street down to Brooklyn Bridge/City Hall. For added convenience, a crosstown bus stop is situated less than 0.1 miles away, connecting East End Avenue to Riverside Drive and offering efficient east-west travel across the city.

Furthermore, the property is 0.7 miles from the Second Avenue Subway (Q train) entrance at 83rd Street and 2nd Avenue. This line runs from 96th Street all the way to Coney Island-Stillwell Avenue, stopping at major transit hubs such as Times Square, Herald Square and Union Square, providing seamless connectivity to some of New York City's most prominent locations.
