Who lives in the 10-minute drive time?

Moderate Metros

Young families and singles in growing suburban metro peripheries

Median Age: 38.1
Median HH Income: $70,055
LifeMode Group: Metro Vibes
Socioeconomic Traits: Moderate

Metros represents young families with preschoolers and single-person households in growing suburban areas. They are bargain-conscious online shoppers working in healthcare and retail, with short commutes and civic engagement through voting and recycling practices.

Room to Roam

Often self-employed homeowners, DINKs (dual income, no kids) in the suburbs of MSAs

Median Age: 46.5
Median HH Income: $99,689
LifeMode Group: Suburban Shine
Socioeconomic Traits: Room to Roam is often a married home without children and have the freedom to travel given their self-employment. They enjoy cooking, baking, reading, gardening and walking their dogs, and are sustainability conscious.

Loyal Locals

Brand-faithful individuals rooted in a small-town atmosphere

Median Age: 46.4
Median HH Income: $77,266
LifeMode Group: Suburban Shine
Socioeconomic Traits: Loyal Locals

represent the heart of a small-town American atmosphere - individuals who've built wealth through consistency and loyalty. They stick to trusted brands, buy American-made, drive domestic cars and rely on television for news while using social media to maintain community connections across generations.

Legacy Hills

Adults and empty nesters who shop local in the suburbs

Median Age: 45.6
Median HH Income: $55,927
LifeMode Group: Suburban Shine
Socioeconomic Traits: Legacy Hills

represents mature residents, many widowed or divorced, living in modest suburban homes near metro areas. They prefer local shopping and traditional media like radio and magazines, with interests in travel, bowling and golf while maintaining a limited online presence compared to younger segments.
