Austin, TX

Austin, Texas is a booming hub for tech, healthcare, and government jobs, making it one of the most desirable places to live and work. Major employers like Apple, Dell, Tesla, Google, and Samsung have a strong presence, contributing to the city's rapid economic growth and earning Austin the nickname "Silicon Hills". The University of Texas at Austin, a key player in innovation, healthcare, and a skilled labor provider also adds to Austin's dynamic job market.

Austin's population has grown by 33% over the past decade and is projected to reach 3 million by 2030. The city's quality of life is enhanced by outdoor recreation, live music, and a famous food scene. Festivals like SXSW and ACL make Austin a cultural hotspot, while its 228 sunny days a year offer plenty of opportunities for outdoor activities.

With no state income tax and a relatively low cost of living, Austin attracts professionals looking to maximize their earnings. The tech ecosystem thrives, supported by incubators, startups, and venture capital. Austin is also committed to sustainability, aiming for net-zero emissions by 2040. The city boasts a 3.7% unemployment rate and a median household income of $94,604, making it an appealing choice for professionals, families, and investors alike.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE & NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Ranked among the top public universities in the U.S. and as the #1 public university in Texas by the U.S. News & World Report, UT Austin is the Flagship of the UT System and serves over 52,000 students.

DARRELL K ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM

One of the largest stadiums in the US and seating over 100,000 fans, DKR stadium drives major foot traffic during football season, drawing crowds from across the state.

BLANTON MUSEUM OF ART

One of the largest university art museums in the U.S., Blanton Museum of Art features over 21,000 works and was recently renovated with a new Patio and plaza space for community events.

DELL MEDICAL SCHOOL

Comprising of the Health Discovery Building, Dell Seton Medical Center, and research-driven academic facilities, the Dell Medical School is an anchor for UT's health innovation district.

ECONOMIC & RESEARCH POWERHOUSE

One of the largest employers in Austin, UT has an annual budget of $3.9 billion and accrues over $800 million in annual research expenditures.

THE DRAG

Located on Guadalupe Street directly west of campus, this lively retail and food corridor brings heavy student foot traffic to the many iconic cafés, bookstores, vintage shops, and quick eats in the area.

Located in Central Austin, St. David's Medical Center has provided Central Texans with exceptional medical care for over a century. The hospital includes a 371-bed acute care hospital and a 64-bed rehabilitation hospital providing comprehensive inpatient and outpatient care.

ST DAVID'S HIGHLIGHTS:

1. Acclaimed Level IV maternity unit
2. The region's largest Level IV Neonatal Intensive Care Unit
3. High-risk maternal and neonatal transport team
4. Home to the prestigious Texas Cardiac Arrhythmia Institute
5. 24-Hour emergency department and comprehensive stroke center
6. Specialized in treating high acuity surgical patients
