SIERRA VISTA

Sierra Vista, located in southeastern Arizona, is a growing city known for its proximity to Fort Huachuca, a major U.S. Army installation, and its beautiful desert surroundings. With a population of over 45,000, the city serves as a regional hub for commerce, education, and recreation. Key institutions like Cochise College and Canyon Vista Medical Center attract a diverse and dynamic population. Conveniently situated near Highway 92 and a short drive from Interstate 10, The Mall at Sierra Vista benefits from excellent accessibility and a steady flow of visitors from the local community and surrounding areas. The city's unique combination of military presence and community growth makes it an ideal market for retail businesses.
