ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

The University of Arizona, a land-grant University with two independently accredited medical schools, is one of the nation's top public Universities, according to U.S. News & World Report. Established in 1885, the UA is widely recognized as a student-centric University and has been designated as a Hispanic Serving Institution by the U.S. Department of Education. The UA ranked in the top 25 in 2018 in research expenditures among all public universities, according to the National Science Foundation, and is a leading Research 1 institution with $687 million in annual research expenditures. The UA advances the frontiers of interdisciplinary scholarship and entrepreneurial partnerships as a member of the Association of American Universities, the 62 leading public and private research universities in the U.S. It benefits the state with an estimated economic impact of $4.1 billion annually.
