There's no better place to create business opportunity than a space that facilitates business.

Oliver CRE can be the conduit that matches your business to just the right place.

We have a formula for creating seamless property management.

Oliver CRE creates opportunities with our smart, resourceful property management team who gets your wants and needs. We make your business ours.

How can we be of service?

HOUSTON,
WE FACILITATE BUSINESS.

COMMERCIAL BUILDINGS

We know that commercial property is more than just a place to do business. It's the heart of what your business represents.

Our commercial spaces are located in strategic areas of Houston from the Houston Ship Channel to The Woodlands.

We're based here and have the expertise to get business done based on each client's particular needs. You'll work with an attentive local team who will make your space a place to create confidence and convenience for you and your team.

The days of the cubical are coming to an end. Employers have mobile workforces and virtual teams and the concept of collaboration and shared spaces creates new and exciting challenges for getting business done. We're ready to work with you to design the perfect solution for all of your business needs.

We are partnered with technology advisors who make sure you have internet connectivity and power where you need it.

Our office suites feature functional space with conference rooms that inspire winning outcomes for whatever you do.
