Chattanooga, is in southeastern Tennessee, it sets along the Tennessee River in the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains. With a city population of more than 180,000 residents, it is the 4th largest city in the state and has everything to offer from business and economic success to beautiful scenery and activities.

Chattanooga is the middle point for several larger surrounding cities including Atlanta, Knoxville, and Nashville.

- In 2009, Chattanooga and the Electric Power Board installed a $330 million fiber-optic network that is estimated to have contributed more than $1 billion to the local economy
- The Gateway - a new, 110-acre mixed used development site adjacent to the recently completed CHI Memorial soccer stadium that broke ground in 2022 with an estimated $1 billion in economic development over the completion of the project
- The Bend - a 120 acre, adaptive reuse project with over 3,000 linear feet of river frontage aiming to reshape Chattanooga downtown landscape and attract corporate office relocations. The project's master plan features more than 300,000 SF of retail and entertainment space, 700,000+ SF of office, 450+ upmarket residential units, more than 250 hotel rooms and 300 marina slips.
