MCCANDLESS TOWNSHIP

McCandless Township is situated directly in the heart of the North Hills and is conveniently located only 20 minutes from downtown Pittsburgh. McCandless Township is quite a sizable community with a population close to 30,000 residents. It has quickly become one of the most dynamic submarkets in the Pittsburgh region and is home to the region's most popular shopping, dining, entertainment, medical and professional services. McKnight Road, also known as Bypass 19, is the main route that runs through McCandless Township. McCandless Township is bordered by Pine Township, Hampton Township, Ross Township, and Franklin Park.

There are quite a few of retail shoppes, restaurants, and businesses located along this stretch in McCandless. Health care is also conveniently located in McCandless Township as the UPMC Passavant Hospital is right on Babcock Boulevard.

AWARD WINNING EDUCATION - NORTH ALLEGHENY SCHOOL DISTRICT

North Allegheny School District has a total population of around 45,000 residents located twelve miles north of Pittsburgh. North Allegheny serves the municipalities of Bradford Woods Borough, Franklin Park Borough, Marshall Township and the Town of McCandless and encompasses a total of 48 square miles. North Allegheny is the largest suburban school district in Allegheny County. The District is also one of the largest employers in the North Hills of Pittsburgh, employing over 1,000 people.
