Argenta Arts District

Founded as an independent town in 1866, Argenta was the first location to connect Memphis and the Little Rock area by railroad. Eventually incorporated into the city of North Little Rock, the Argenta Arts District is now one of North Little Rock's oldest and most eclectic neighborhoods.

The buildings are more than a century old, but the lifestyle is cutting-edge. Residents flock to the community for its beauty and friendly atmosphere, and for the endless assortment of entertainment activities – ranging from art galleries and theaters to outdoor trails and delicious local dining options.

Residents and visitors enjoy the neighborhood's monthly art walks, and the assortment of music and food festivals held throughout the year. The Argenta Plaza, the neighborhood's showstopper, is a $5.36-million community space with a "front porch" area with modern swings; a stage with 40-foot video projection wall; a water wall; fountains and a "backyard" area with trees. The plaza has been the catalyst for more than $50 million in economic development in downtown North Little Rock.

The Metro Streetcar, a 3.4-mile transit system, seamlessly links the vibrant downtown areas in Little Rock and North Little Rock/Argenta.

The Arkansas River Trail is an extensive 88-mile bike trail that winds its way through Central Arkansas. A scenic 15.6-mile loop runs from the Clinton Presidential Bridge in North Little Rock to Little Rock's Big Dam Bridge and back.

Nestled along the Arkansas River, Simmons Bank Arena stands as a dynamic entertainment destination with a seating capacity of 18,000 and 28,000 square feet of versatile meeting and conference space.

Dickey-Stephens Park is a premier, 7,300-seat baseball facility, proudly serving as the home for the Arkansas Travelers, the AA affiliate of the Seattle Mariners.
