CBRE

Affiliated Business Disclosure

CBRE, Inc. ("CBRE") operates within a global family of companies with many subsidiaries and related entities (each an "Affiliate") engaging in a broad range of commercial real estate businesses including, but not limited to, brokerage services, property and facilities management, valuation, investment fund management and development. At times different Affiliates, including CBRE Investment Management, Inc. or Trammell Crow Company, may have or represent clients who have competing interests in the same transaction. For example, Affiliates or their clients may have or express an interest in the property described in this Memorandum (the "Property") and may be the successful bidder for the Property. Your receipt of this Memorandum constitutes your acknowledgement of that possibility and your agreement that neither CBRE nor any Affiliate has an obligation to disclose to you such Affiliates' interest or involvement in the sale or purchase of the Property. In all instances, however, CBRE and its Affiliates will act in the best interest of their respective client(s), at arms' length, not in concert, or in a manner detrimental to any third party. CBRE and its Affiliates will conduct their respective businesses in a manner consistent with the law and all fiduciary duties owed to their respective client(s).

Disclaimer

This Memorandum contains select information pertaining to the Property and the owner of the property and does not purport to be all-inclusive or contain all or part of the information which prospective investors may require to evaluate a purchase of the Property. The information contained in this Memorandum has been obtained from sources believed to be reliable, but has not been verified for accuracy, completeness, or fitness for any particular purpose. All information is presented "as is" without representation or warranty of any kind. Such information includes estimates based on forward-looking assumptions relating to the general economy, market conditions, competition and other factors which are subject to uncertainty and may not represent the current or future performance of the Property. All references to acreages, square footages, and other measurements are approximations. This Memorandum describes certain documents, including leases and other materials, in summary form. These summaries may not be complete nor accurate descriptions of the full agreements referenced. Additional information and an opportunity to inspect the Property may be made available to qualified prospective purchasers upon request. You are advised to independently verify the accuracy and completeness of all summaries and information contained herein, to consult with independent legal and financial advisors, and carefully investigate the economics of this transaction and Property's suitability for your needs. ANY RELIANCE ON THE CONTENT OF THIS MEMORANDUM IS SOLELY AT YOUR OWN RISK.

The Owner expressly reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to reject any or all expressions of interest or offers to purchase the Property, and/or to terminate discussions at any time with or without notice to you. All offers, counteroffers, and negotiations shall be non-binding and neither CBRE, Inc. nor the Owner shall have any legal commitment or obligation except as set forth in a fully executed, definitive purchase and sale agreement delivered by the Owner.

Confidentiality Agreement

Your receipt of this Memorandum constitutes your acknowledgement that (i) it is a confidential Memorandum solely for your limited use and benefit in determining whether you desire to express further interest in the acquisition of the Property, (ii) you will hold it in the strictest confidence, (iii) you will not disclose it or its contents to any third party without the prior written authorization of the Owner or CBRE, and (iv) you will not use any part of this Memorandum in any manner detrimental to the Owner or CBRE.

If after reviewing this Memorandum, you have no further interest in purchasing the Property, kindly return it to CBRE.

TERESA CENTER

This is the largest building on campus, it's full masonry construction with a brick exterior. The roof is asphalt and shingle on the pitched sides and rolled asphalt on the flat sides. This building has single bed residence rooms and these rooms share common bathrooms on the upper floors. The first floor has a main dining hall and a full-service commercial kitchen. The basement is sprinklered, and on the first floor in the kitchen the stove is sprinklered.

The fifth floor of the Theresa center is primarily used for storage. There are a total of 143 residences in the Theresa and Caroline Centers.

Access to the upper floors is provided by staircases and three elevators. The building has pine flooring, some sections of the pine flooring have asbestos sub floors and mastic.

CAROLINE CENTER

This T shaped building has floors on the east side that are open to the first four floors of the Theresa Center. This building also has a partial basement on the southwest side. The building is full masonry construction with a brick exterior, and it has double hung thermal windows. The building has a flat roof comprised of bitumen with pea gravel ballast. The building is fully sprinklered. The ground floor is primarily office use and the upper floors are residences. The finish in both the Theresa and Caroline centers is similar, with carpeted flooring in the hallways, painted drywall interior demising walls, acoustic drop ceilings.

OVERPASS APARTMENTS

This small rectangular two floor building is located on the north side of the Theresa Center. It is used as guest bedrooms.

ECOLOGY CENTER

This one story building was originally constructed as a laundry facility for the campus. It is now primarily used as an exercise facility.

MARIA CENTER

This three story masonry (brick) building has a large central atrium, a full basement and is served by an elevator. The building is used as an educational conference center. The building's HVAC is separate from the rest of the campus as it has a boiler and chiller in the basement along with an air handler.

MADONNA HALL

This is a two story masonry and glass classroom building. About half of the windows have been replaced with thermal and half are single pane in aluminum frames. It's heated by the campus boiler system and is cooled by window air conditioning units. The building does not have an elevator and is not sprinklered.

ROMANA HALL

This is a two story masonry and glass classroom building. About half of the windows have been replaced with thermal and half are single pane in aluminum frames. It's heated by the campus boiler system and is cooled by window air conditioning units. The building does not have an elevator and is not sprinklered.

FORMER HEADSTART

This one story building is attached to the Madonna Hall. It was originally used as classrooms. The building has four large classrooms and it has an insulated fiberglass roof and older windows.

At the Center of it All

The Gateway to the West. The country's inherent center. The midpoint of the Mississippi. St. Louis has always been the connector: of the nation's geographic ends; of past, present and future; of what's happening to what's next. But with a collective pride from its sense of place and culture, the city is a door that unlocks even more than you can imagine.
