Direct: 877-518-5263 x371 | Cell: 803-767-6131

Professional Background

With over 30 years of experience in project management, construction oversight, and engineering across the warehouse/distribution, industrial, and manufacturing sectors, Bobby Lyles is a trusted authority in delivering high-performance commercial real estate projects. Based in Florida and focused on the Southeastern United States, he is a licensed real estate professional who partners with national developers, industrial companies, and investors to identify, acquire, and optimize strategic industrial sites that align with long-term operational and investment goals.

Bobby has led the successful completion of more than twenty large-scale, multimillion-dollar start-up and expansion projects—particularly in plastics, rubber, and broader manufacturing industries. Notably, during his tenure as Senior Project Engineer and Construction Manager at Bridgestone, he oversaw the company's largest North American investment—the $1.1 billion off-road tire plant in Aiken County, South Carolina—along with complex expansion initiatives across multiple international facilities.

A graduate of the University of South Carolina with studies in Mechanical Engineering and Industrial Studies, Bobby is nationally recognized for his expertise in site selection, estimating, and construction management. He holds several globally respected certifications, including Project Management Professional (PMP), Six Sigma Black Belt, Root Cause Analysis, and Navigation Leadership & Negotiation. As an FAA-certified drone operator (Part 107) and private pilot, he brings unique aerial insight and real-time reconnaissance capabilities to site evaluation and construction monitoring.

Beyond his technical skill set, Bobby is a frequent speaker and educator on industrial site strategy, regularly advising corporate real estate teams, developers, and consultants across North America. Whether tackling complex Brownfield remediation or managing Greenfield developments from the ground up, he delivers clarity, speed, and value at every stage of the industrial development process.

Bobby specializes in:

- Industrial
- Warehousing/Distribution
- Lease Tenant & Owner Representation
- Land & Zoning

Professional Background

David A. Goffe, CCIM is a Senior Advisor at Saunders Real Estate.

David is a Florida native with a rich legacy in Florida real estate. His family was one of the earliest settlers in the Englewood Florida area in the 1800s and his father established HT Goffe Realty in Palm Beach Florida in the 1960s.

David has been active in the local real estate market for over 29 years and is a Certified Commercial Investment Member designee (CCIM). He also holds the Short Sale Resource certification (SFR) and the Certified Distressed Property Expert (CDPE) professional designations.

His broad range of experience includes sales and leasing for retail and industrial properties, single family investment portfolios, property development, and medical office and single tenant sales and leasing.

David uses computer-based models and mapping tools in combination with his years of experience in real estate to identify locations where businesses will succeed.

This level of detailed property knowledge allows David to excel both in “user seeking site” (site selection) as well as “site seeking use” (lease marketing for property owners/landlords) transactions. He is particularly talented in matching tenants with available space and/or sites for development.

David specializes in:

- Retail Properties
- Commercial Properties
- Industrial Properties
- Tenant Site Selection
