NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC Atlas of the World

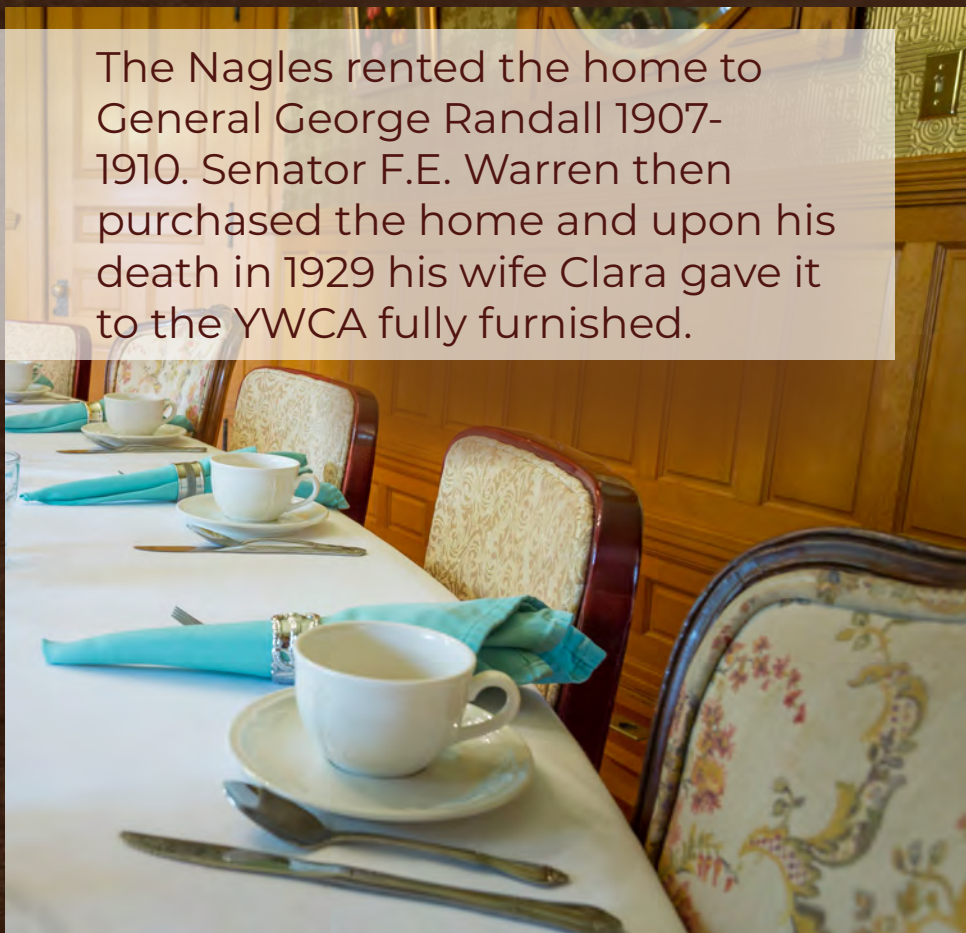

The Nagle Warren Mansion was built by Erasmus Nagle in 1888. It is one of the few remaining fine homes built during the 1880's, when Cheyenne was the richest city, for its size, in the world. Mr. Nagle died two short years later.

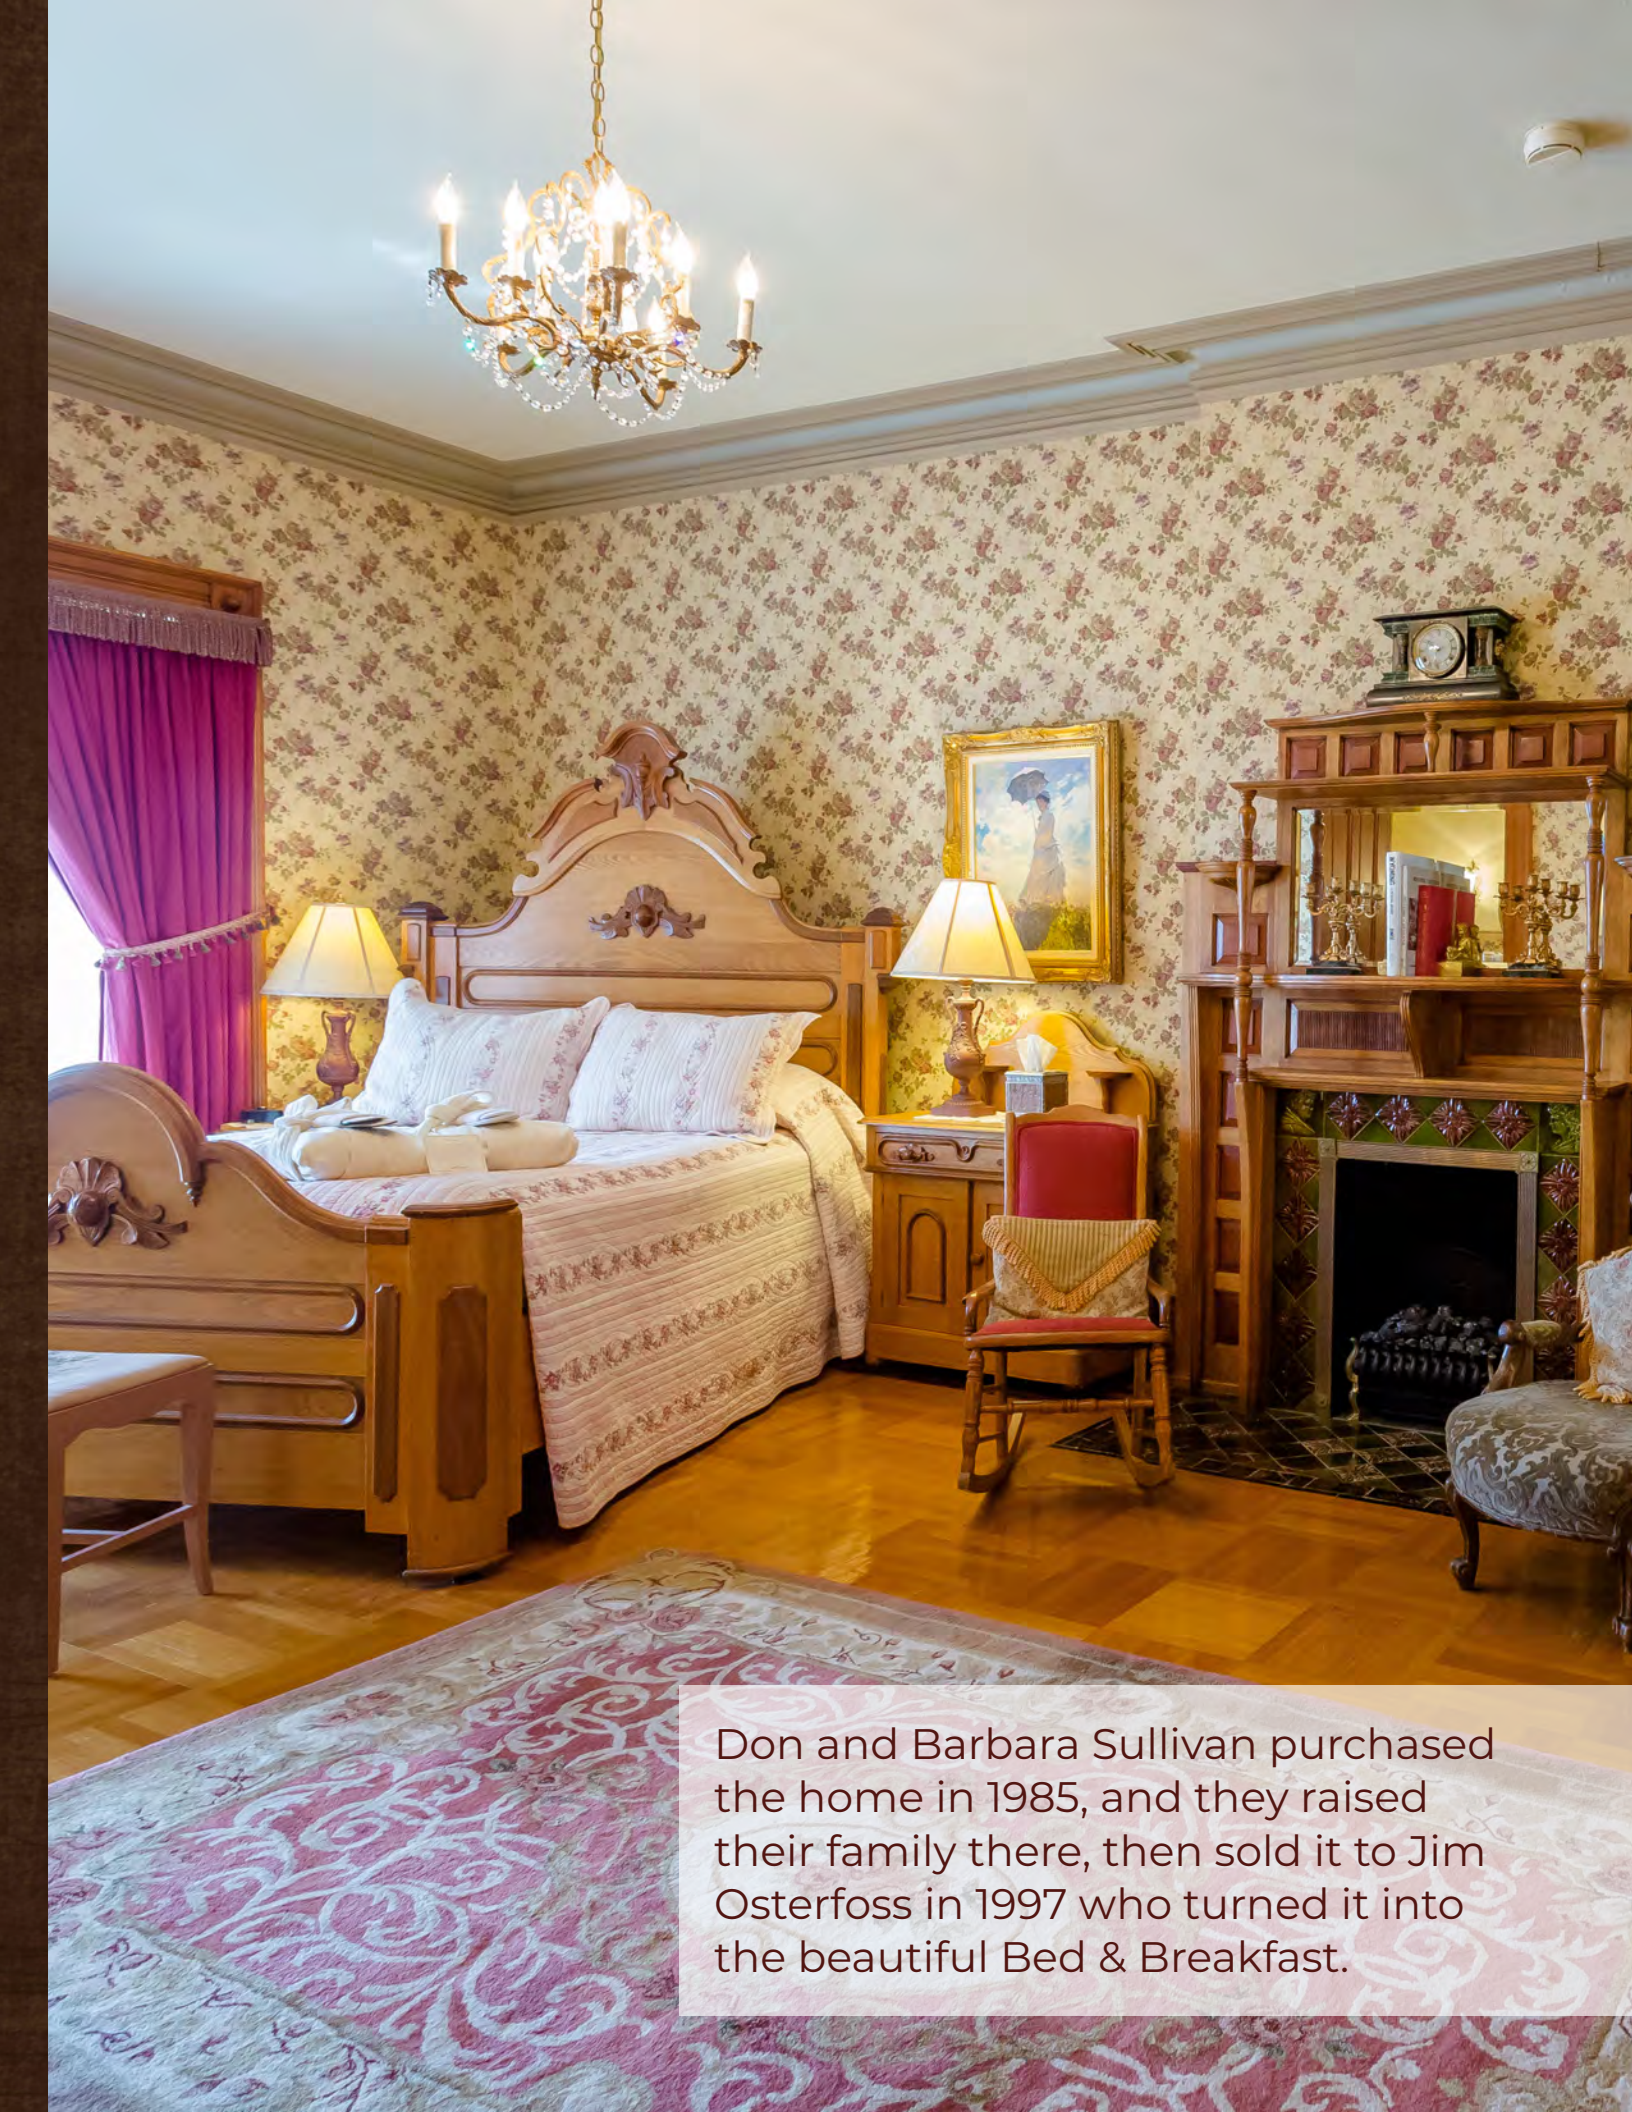

The Nagles rented the home to General George Randall 1907-1910. Senator F.E. Warren then purchased the home and upon his death in 1929 his wife Clara gave it to the YWCA fully furnished.

Don and Barbara Sullivan purchased the home in 1985, and they raised their family there, then sold it to Jim Osterfoss in 1997 who turned it into the beautiful Bed & Breakfast.

Nagle Warren was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 1984. It received the AAA Four Diamond Rating.
