Fredrickson Builders Supply has proudly served the community for more than 100 years, offering lumber, building materials, hardware, and contractor services to generations of customers. This sale represents a rare opportunity to acquire not only a well-respected and fully operational business but also an expansive real estate package. Spanning nearly 25 acres across multiple tax parcels, the property includes 10 separate buildings with more than 30,000 square feet of usable space. The main retail store and showroom provide approximately 3,800 square feet for customer service, office functions, and inventory display. Several warehouses, pole barns, machine sheds, and storage facilities accommodate large-scale lumber, roofing, and construction materials, while open yard space supports bulk inventory, vehicle parking, and expansion opportunities. The site also includes a blacktop parking area for customers, a delivery fleet with crane service, and the infrastructure needed to support high-volume operations. The property and business are being offered together as a turnkey package, presenting the chance to step into a well-established enterprise with a strong reputation and loyal customer base. Whether continuing the operation as a builder's supply or reimagining the acreage and structures for new commercial or mixed-use development, this property offers unmatched versatility. Its combination of scale, location, and history makes it a unique investment in one of Western New York's most accessible and opportunity-rich corridors.
