SUMMARY

Okada and Company is pleased to present to the Amalgamated Lithographers of America Building, located at 113 University Place in Greenwich Village. Rising 11 stories tall, the building's southeast corner position at University Place and 13th St allows for breathtaking views and natural light from three sides of windows. The building's location near Union Square is a valuable asset, providing access to weekly farmer's markets and public transportation.

Historically, the building has housed a diverse array of tenants, including architects, PR firms, photographers, design studios, non-profits, and wellness-related businesses. Each full-floor office enjoys direct elevator access and tenant-controlled central AC units. With multiple passenger elevators and 24/7 access, 113 University Place is well-suited for a wide range of uses.
