LAKE NONA, FLORIDA

Lake Nona is a fast-growing, master-planned community located in southeastern Orlando, Florida. It is considered that the Lake Nona area is bordered by Florida Toll Road 528 to the North, The Orlando International Airport to the East, the Osceola Country Line to the South and Lake Mary Jane to the East. The current population of the city is estimated to be 22,533.

Lake Nona has emerged as a major economic engine in the Orlando region, driven by healthcare, life sciences, education, technology, and innovation. At the core of its economy is the Lake Nona Medical City, home to premier institutions such as Nemours Children’s Hospital, VA Medical Center, University of Central Florida College of Medicine, and the UCF Lake Nona Hospital.

In addition to healthcare, Lake Nona is investing heavily in tech innovation and smart city infrastructure. It houses the VerdeXchange Innovation Center, Autonomous Vehicle Testing, and is home to Johnson & Johnson Human Performance Institute and KPMG’s Lakehouse Training Facility. Mixed-use developments and Class A office spaces are attracting startups, corporate headquarters, and remote professionals, positioning Lake Nona as a leader in next-generation urban development.

Lake Nona offers a range of lifestyle and recreational attractions. Boxi Park, a family-friendly outdoor venue made from repurposed shipping containers, features restaurants, bars, a stage for live music, and a beach volleyball court. The community is designed with health and wellness in mind, with over 40 miles of trails, fitness-focused parks, and art installations. Golf enthusiasts can enjoy the exclusive Lake Nona Golf & Country Club, and sports fans have access to the USTA National Campus, one of the largest tennis facilities in the world.

ORLANDO, FLORIDA

Orlando is a city in the U.S. state of Florida and the county seat of Orange County. Located in Central Florida, it is the center of the Orlando metropolitan area. The city of Orlando is the 4th largest city in Florida with a population of 334,854 as of 2024. The city is in the approximate center of the State of Florida and the four-county Orlando-Kissimmee-Sanford Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA). The city of Orlando is nicknamed “The City Beautiful” and its symbol is the fountain at Lake Eola. Orlando is also known as “The Theme Park Capital of the World” and in 2014 its tourist attractions and events drew more than 62 million visitors. The Orlando International Airport (MCO) is the seventh busiest airport in the United States and the 18th busiest in the world.

Orlando is a major industrial and hi-tech center. Orlando has the 7th largest research park in the country, Central Florida Research Park, with over 1,025 acres. It is home to over 120 companies, employs more than 8,500 people, and is the hub of the nation’s military simulation and training programs. The region’s infrastructure offers reliability, affordability and efficiency - giving businesses seamless access to the people and places they need to reach. Companies can depend on a diverse variety of transportation modes that are critical to the city’s thriving economy. One of the main driving forces in Orlando’s economy is its tourism industry and the city is one of the leading tourism destinations in the world. Nicknamed the ‘Theme Park Capital of the World’, the Orlando area is home to Walt Disney World Resort, Universal Orlando Resort, and SeaWorld Orlando. The convention industry is also critical to the region’s economy. The Orange County Convention Center is now the second-largest convention complex in terms of space in the United States, trailing only McCormick Place in Chicago. The city vies with Chicago and Las Vegas for hosting the most convention attendees in the United States.

The Orlando International Airport (MCO) is Orlando’s primary airport and currently the second busiest airport in the state of Florida closely behind Miami International Airport.

Orlando is best known around the world for its many popular attractions.

Walt Disney World, the most visited vacation resort in the world with more than 48 million visitors every year. The property covers 66 square miles with four theme parks, 24 themed resort hotels, two water parks, and four golf courses.

Universal Orlando Resort the largest property operated by Universal Parks & Resorts and the largest resort in Orlando with two theme parks: Universal Studios Florida and Islands of Adventure. Universal Orlando Resort, and Wet 'n Wild Water Park, the first water park in America.

SeaWorld features marine animals like sea lions, orcas and dolphins with displays and shows. SeaWorld had the first birth of a killer whale in captivity and the first hatching of captive green sea turtles.
