

1104 W. Vine Drive Ft. Collins, CO

An aerial photograph of a property featuring a large, light-colored storage building with a flat roof. The building is situated on a paved area, likely a parking lot, which is surrounded by a chain-link fence. To the left of the building, a dark car and a white pickup truck are parked. The surrounding area includes some trees and a road on the right side. A semi-transparent grey box with rounded corners is overlaid on the lower right portion of the image, containing text about the property.
