Professional Background

Alex Webber serves as a Commercial Real Estate Advisor with NAI Koella | RM Moore, where he specializes in land sales and ground leases, Professional/medical office, retail and investment properties, buyer/tenant representation, and site selection. Based in East Tennessee, with a particular emphasis on Blount, Knox and Sevier Counties, he is committed to helping clients identify strategic real estate opportunities to establish, expand, or relocate their businesses. A Maryville native, he brings a strong understanding of the local market and draws on his family's legacy of business ownership to offer informed guidance and a detail-oriented approach.

He is a 2013 graduate of Maryville High School and began his real estate career as a Closing Specialist with Admiral Title Company in Knoxville. This foundational experience provided valuable insight into transactional processes and sparked his interest in commercial real estate, leading to his licensure as an affiliate broker in 2021. He remains actively engaged in the professional community through participation in the Young Professionals groups of both the Blount County Chamber and the Farragut/West Knox Chamber of Commerce.
