NEIGHBORHOOD ANALYSIS: EXPLOSIVE GROWTH IN CASTLE ROCK'S PREMIER SUBURBAN CORRIDOR

Castle Rock, a vibrant suburban region in central Douglas County, sits strategically 32 miles south of Denver's CBD and 40 miles north of Colorado Springs, offering seamless connectivity via I-25 for a regional draw of over 3 million. This 25–75% built-up neighborhood is in a stable life-cycle stage, with low likelihood of land-use shifts, ensuring predictability for investors. Boundaries define a focused trade area: North (East Plum Creek Parkway), South (Bell Mountain Parkway), East (Lake Gulch Road), and West (Twin Oaks Road/Foothills)—encompassing a mix of 45% single-family residential, 20% commercial, 10% multi-housing, and 10% industrial uses.

Demographic Snapshot: Affluent, Educated, and Expanding

Immediate radii reveal a high-potential consumer profile (ESRI, 2025):

Radius	2024 Population (Growth to 2029)	2024 Median HH Income	Avg. HH Income	% College Grads (25+)	Key Insight
1-Mile	1,648 (→1,836; +2.18% annual)	$158,901	$199,632	60.0%	Ultra-local affluent enclave; ideal for upscale anchors.
3-Mile	26,191 (→29,467; +2.39% annual)	$129,284	$167,232	54.3%	Emerging family hub; strong for everyday essentials.
5-Mile	76,203 (→84,469; +2.08% annual)	$150,864	$181,317	58.1%	MSA benchmark beater; $64K per capita income fuels premium spending.

These figures eclipse MSA averages, with 5-mile growth outpacing the broader 0.84% annual rate—driven by young professionals and families drawn to the area's outdoor lifestyle and proximity to urban amenities.

Growth Catalysts: Infrastructure and Development Boom

Recent moderate growth includes multi-family apartments and attached housing southward, plus industrial along I-25, but retail has been limited to small-scale (<10,000 SF) scatters. This untapped potential positions your space as a flagship opportunity.

Key drivers:

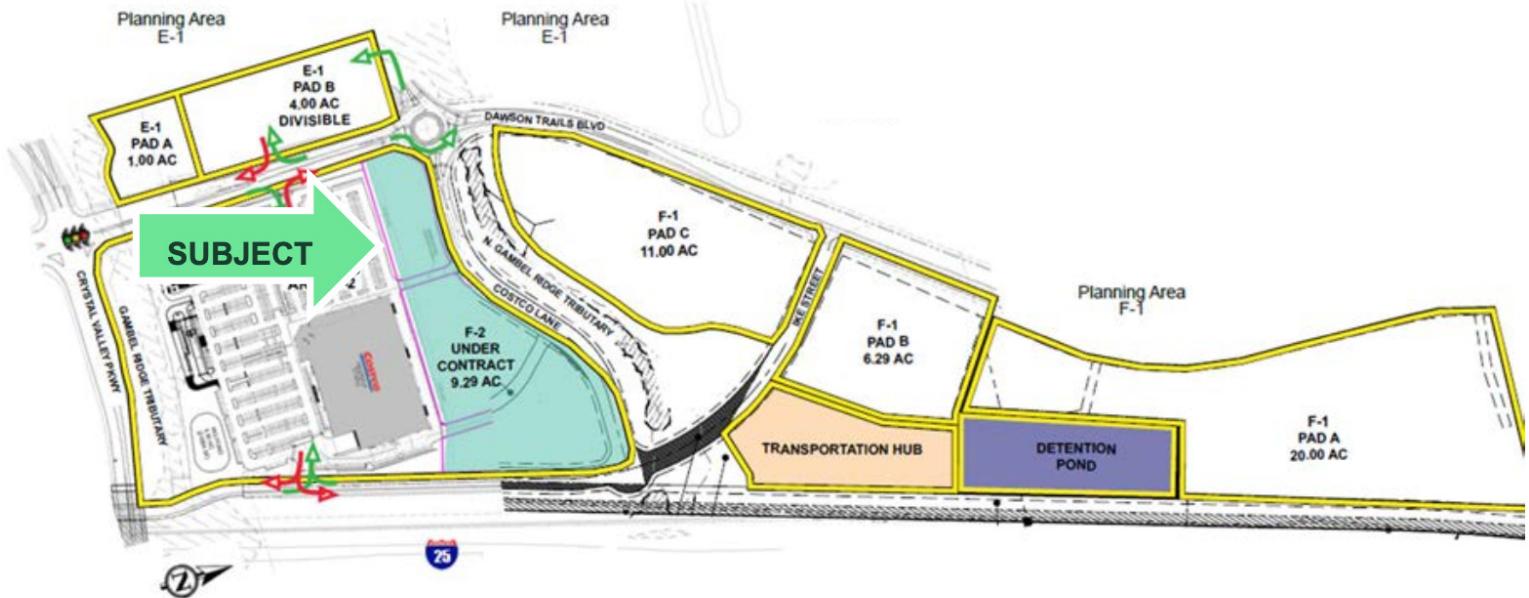

- Adjacent Costco Warehouse: 19.7-acre site (Q1 2027 opening) directly south, sharing parking/access—proven to generate 10,000+ daily visits, boosting visibility for co-anchored tenants.
- I-25 Interchange at Crystal Valley Parkway: Under construction south of site (Q1 2027 estimated completion), enhancing regional access and unlocking traffic from Denver Springs commuters.
- Approved Expansions: 5,850 new homes + 3.2M SF retail in the immediate area (Town of Castle Rock)—translating to 30,000+ rooftops and exponential foot traffic.

Major thoroughfares (I-25, Plum Creek/Crystal Valley Parkways) and anchors like Plum Creek Golf Course/Shopping Mall amplify draw.

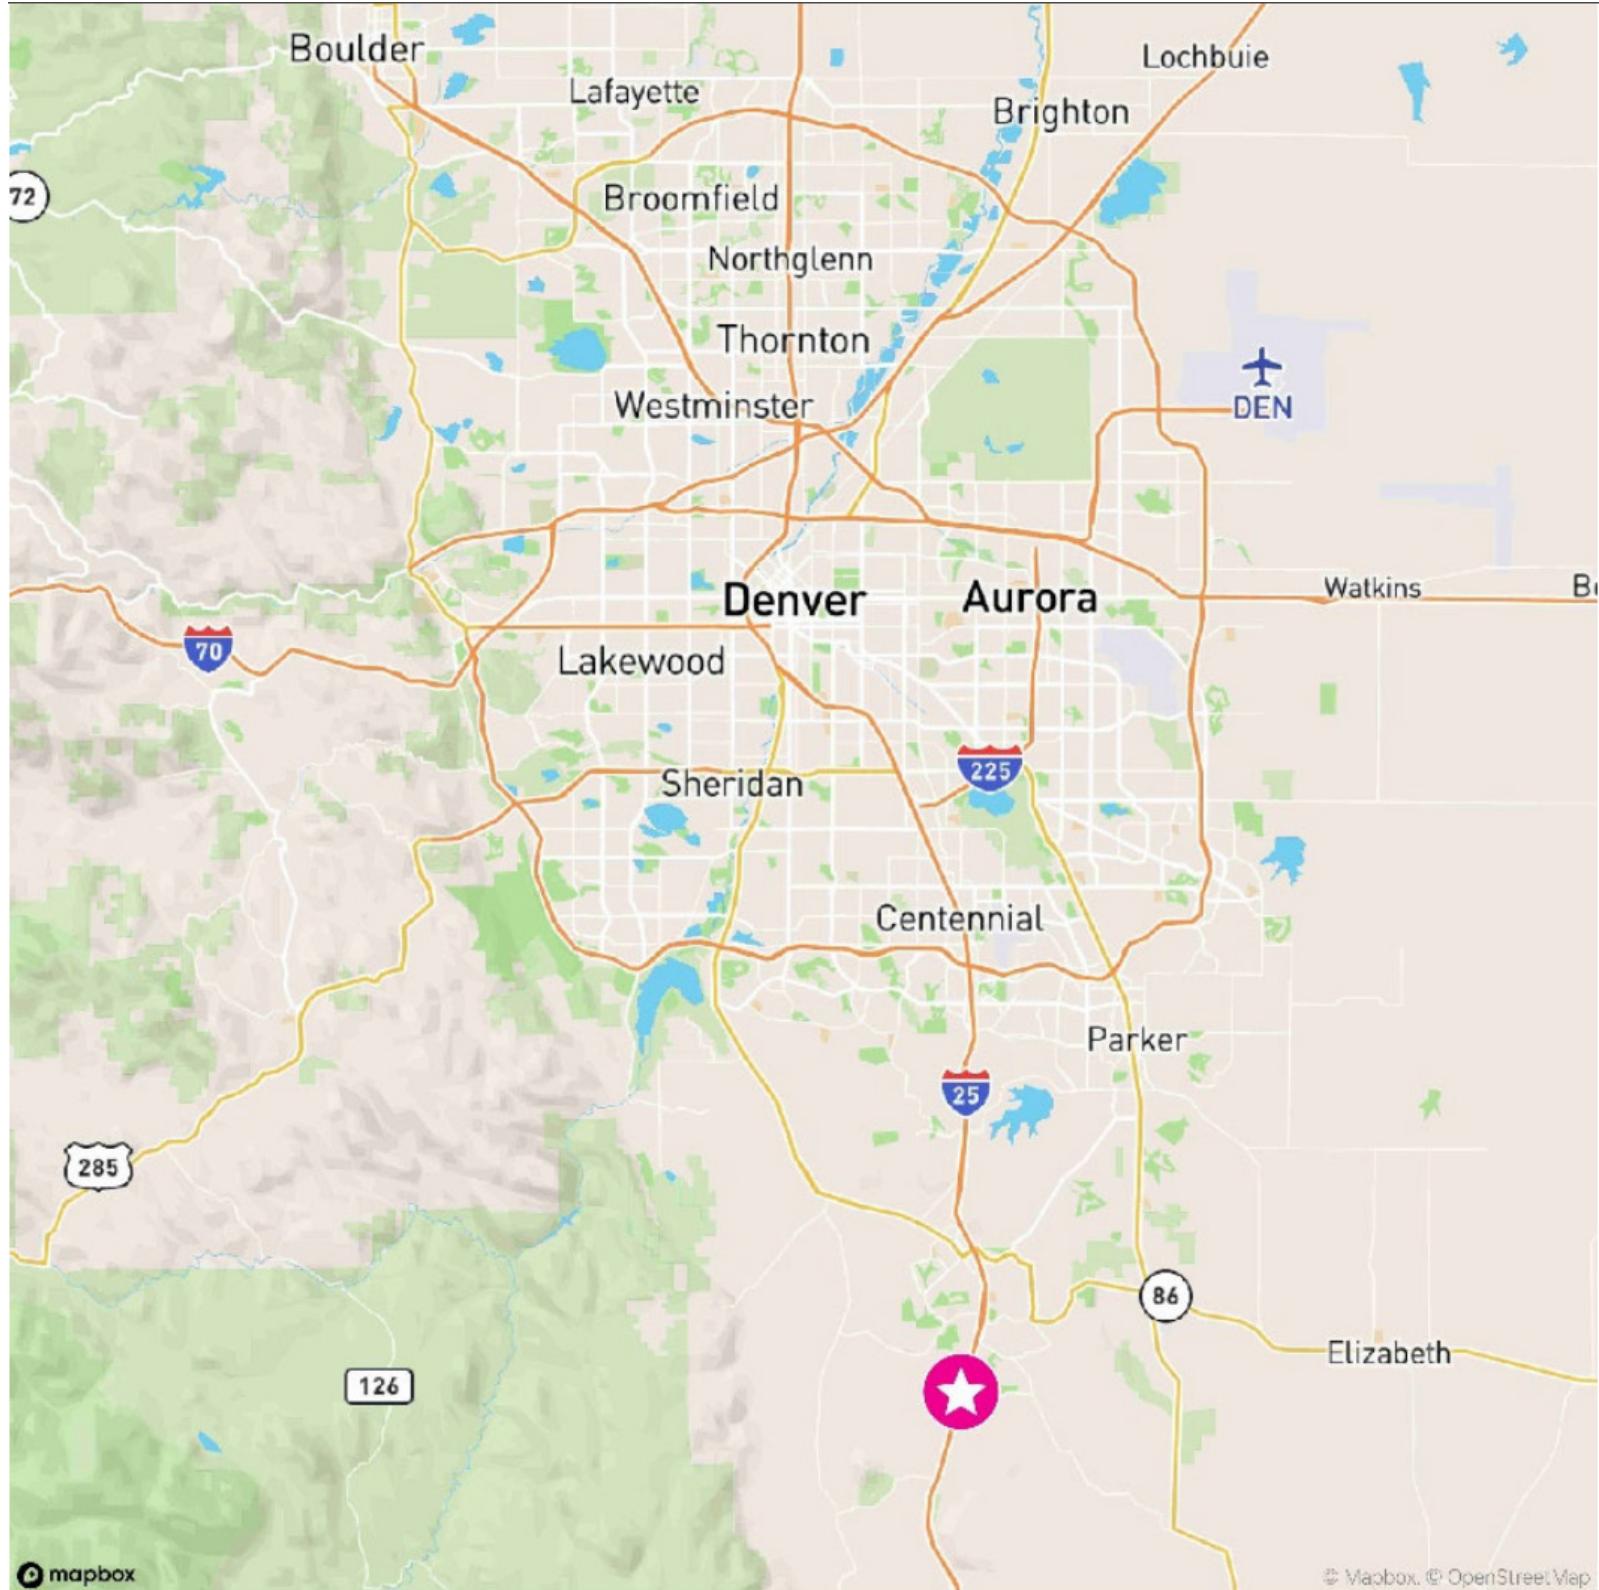

In conclusion, this neighborhood's stability, demographic strength, and imminent catalysts create a "build-to-suit" haven for national retailers eyeing 20–30%+ traffic uplift post-2027.
