City Overview

City of Paradise

Nestled in the scenic Sierra Nevada foothills, Paradise, California combines small-town charm, natural beauty, and strong economic potential. Located just 90 miles north of Sacramento and minutes from Chico, the town occupies a prime position for business growth and long-term development.

Following extensive rebuilding after the 2018 Camp Fire, Paradise has emerged as a model of resilience, supported by modernized infrastructure, streamlined permitting, and substantial state and federal investment. With affordable land, a growing population, and pro-business leadership, Paradise now offers exceptional opportunities for retail, office, and mixed-use development. Businesses benefit from strong local loyalty, limited regional competition, and a community eager to reinvest in its future.
