LOCATION SUMMARY

PARCEL OVERVIEW

DUVALL OVERVIEW

Duvall is an established and growing community in northeast King County, located approximately 25 miles east of downtown Seattle. Situated along the Snoqualmie River Valley, the city offers a balance of suburban accessibility, neighborhood-oriented development, and proximity to the Eastside's major employment centers, including Redmond, Woodinville, Kirkland, and Bellevue.

The area has experienced consistent residential growth in recent years, driven by demand from households seeking quality schools, outdoor amenities, and relative affordability compared to core Eastside markets. Surrounding land uses are primarily low-density residential with supporting neighborhood retail and civic amenities, creating a stable environment well-suited for owner-user occupancy.

Duvall benefits from convenient regional access via State Route 203, which provides direct north-south connectivity and links to key commuter routes serving the greater Eastside. This accessibility supports both local and commuter-based traffic while preserving the community's small-town character.
