CLOVERDALE SUMMARY

Cloverdale, the northernmost town in Sonoma County, is located in the picturesque Alexander Valley wine region just off of California's Highway 101. Small town charm and friendly people welcome visitors to this city that is framed by oak-studded rolling hills, vineyards, and small farms.

The city proper covers 2.7 square miles with a population of approximately 11,032 (5 mile radius) and is surrounded by oak-studded rolling hills, outstanding recreational opportunities, wineries, vineyards and small farms.

- Walkable and bikable neighborhoods dotted with family-oriented parks
- Apartments and home prices ranging from the affordable to luxury
- River Park on the Russian River and many more walking, hiking and biking trails
- Moderate winters, warm summers
- Balmy summer nights to enjoy downtown plaza events and Farmers Market

Cloverdale is the ideal location for companies looking to relocate where business innovation is encouraged and employee quality of life is exceptional. The city is proud home to Reuser Inc., manufacturer and bulk distributor of organic landscaping materials and Asti Winery, both recipients of many awards for sound environmental business practices. In Cloverdale, entrepreneurial and traditional businesses co-exist and complement each other.

The City appreciates all businesses and works to retain businesses, encouraging expansion in Cloverdale. Cloverdale is a great place to live, work, play – and do business.

Sonoma County is home to approx. 500,000 people. It is a prime location for tourism as well as residence. Just a short drive from the San Francisco Bay Area, there are nine incorporated cities in the county, in addition to seventeen unincorporated areas. The city of Santa Rosa is the most populous area, home to approximately one-third of the county's population and was recently named as one of the nation's "most livable communities" by Partners for Livable Communities.

Sonoma County's unemployment rate is one of the lowest in California and the county continues to show long-term job growth in the health care, hospitality and business service sectors. For the leisure, hospitality, educational and health services, which includes trade schools, social workers and health care professionals, has seen employment growth improve on a year-over-year basis. And business and professional services jobs have increased from a year earlier. In addition, new housing continues to increase throughout the county, while job growth and taxable sales also continue to rise.
