A NEIGHBORHOOD REIMAGINED

The Skyway Marina District is a vibrant and growing area located in southern St. Petersburg, Florida. Recent retail tenants to sign deals in the corridor are Sprouts, Starbucks, Chipotle, Zaxby's and Tropical Smoothie with many more in the works.

34th Street/US Hwy 19 is the major north/south artery serving the entire western coast of Florida. This corridor in South St. Petersburg is experiencing significant growth with brand new luxury apartments including Sur Club, Marina Walk Marina Club, Skytown and the Addison Skyway Marina, which are attracting young professionals relocating not only from different parts of Florida but also the country. Strong retailers are thriving in this market. The Starbucks one mile south of Skytown is one of the busiest locations in St. Petersburg. A driver for people being drawn to the area is the convenient access to the major destinations in Pinellas, Hillsborough, Manatee, and Sarasota counties. It is only a few minutes from Downtown St. Petersburg and St. Pete Beach and offers convenient access to I-275.

The St. Petersburg market overall is experiencing heavy growth as more businesses, young professionals, and families move to the area every day from different parts of the US. The objective is to make Skytown into a shopping and dining destination for the area.
