OWN YOUR OWN OFFICE SUITE

This 2,342sf first-floor condominium is located within the historic 728 Broadway Building, a staple of the Tacoma skyline since 1917. Originally mixed-use, the unit is fully built out with office and retail features. Suite 1A boasts an open floor plan, high ceilings, and storefront windows, with a shared, secure common entry on Broadway.

The 728 Broadway Building has long been a landmark, once home to Studebaker's auto dealership and repair shop, and later serving as a Chrysler dealership. Its prominent location behind Opera Alley in Tacoma's vibrant Theater District ensures unmatched visibility with high foot traffic, and it is surrounded by a rich variety of dining, shopping, and entertainment venues. The Link Light Rail is nearby, and the highly popular McMenamins Elks Temple is within walking distance. There is ample street parking as well as monthly garage parking.

The building's unique character shines through in every detail. Since being acquired in 2005, ownership has thoughtfully preserved and enhanced the space's distinctive features, including the stunning original tiled floors with Greek key pattern accents, soaring ceilings with exposed beams, and expansive windows that fill the space with natural light. These elements have made the building a sought-after destination for both office and retail use, blending historic charm with modern functionality.
