SAN FRANCISCO

6 BEDS — 3 BATHS

2,649 SQFT —

Welcome to 17-19 Card Alley, a freshly renovated, three-residence building in Telegraph Hill offering modern comfort in the heart of one of San Francisco's most vibrant neighborhoods. Nestled on a charming side street, this collection of residences offers a peaceful retreat while being just moments away from the pulse of the city. Each of the three units boasts 2 spacious bedrooms, a split bathroom, and the added convenience of washer and dryers. Located at the prime intersection of North Beach and Chinatown, this property provides unparalleled access to essential services, top-tier dining, and exciting entertainment options, all just half a block away. You're moments from local gems such as the world-famous Golden Gate Bakery, the historic Cafe Greco, and Washington Square Park. Enjoy browsing the iconic City Lights Bookstore or indulge in delicious treats from the birthplace of the fortune cookie. This is a rare opportunity to own a piece of San Francisco's rich cultural tapestry - don't miss your chance to be part of this lively and sought-after community! Perfect for investors, commuters or a full time set of residences or a pied a terres!
