La Mesa is a San Diego suburb with the motto "The Jewel of the Hills," with picturesque landscape ranging from Mount Helix Park to Lake Murray. An up-and-coming market attracting more businesses and young families due to its great schools, recreational sites, and quaint downtown. Located 9 miles East of downtown San Diego it offers an ideal residential community outside of the city.

What is Happening Around La Mesa

Farmers Market

The La Mesa Village Farmers Market has been a cherished community event since 1993. Featuring 60 vendors selling a variety of food and artisan items ranging from fresh produce, seafood, baked goods, flowers to handcrafted products, and more. Every Friday it brings together San Diego's favorite vendors and highlights local La Mesa merchants.

Classic Car Show

A La Mesa summer staple is the La Mesa Classic Car Show taking place weekly from June to August. Every Thursday evening La Mesa Boulevard is lined with an abundance of pre-1974 cars, trucks, and vans. This free family friendly event features live bands and allows visitors to cruise downtown La Mesa, enjoy music, check out the cool classics, and support local restaurants and shops.

Oktoberfest

For half a century, La Mesa Oktoberfest has presented top traditional Bavarian festivities to honor the German holiday. It's a true spotlight for La Mesa as one of the largest Oktoberfest celebrations in San Diego county. With 3 biergartens, live music, a craft faire, interactive kinder playground, and Dachshund races, this 3-day event in September is fun for all.

Holiday Events

As a community driven city, there is no is no shortage of festive events. Throughout the year, La Mesa Village hosts annual holiday traditions including the Flag Day Parade on the 4th of July, Halloween trick-or-treating, and Holiday in the Village. These events are coordinated by local organization with participating business and resident to enrich the neighborhood.
