FOR SALE OR LEASE

Airport Way/East Columbia Corridor:

The Airport Way corridor is one of Portland’s most active and well-connected commercial districts, offering an ideal environment for service-oriented, heavy industrial, and contractor-based businesses. Located just minutes from Portland International Airport and its air-cargo operations, the area provides exceptional logistical convenience for users who rely on fast access to transportation networks.

The area benefits from immediate connectivity to I-5, I-205, and key east-west arterials, allowing efficient movement of crews, customers, and materials throughout the metro. The property sits within a long-established commercial neighborhood that offers abundant employee support services—including food options, fuel, retail, and daily amenities—making it highly functional for businesses with field teams or steady customer interaction.
