Beautiful church property located in Downtown Evansville. This property currently houses Agape Life Church as well as Agape Christian Academy. The building is setup currently for both a church facility and childcare facility. There are 7 large classroom spaces, 2 offices, a conference room, large indoor play area and plenty of additional storage. There is an exiting kitchen area that is not currently being used but could be brought back up to code for a larger childcare user. The sanctuary space is large and features a choir loft and additional office area. The building has been updated with new HVAC throughout, new plumbing and updated fire and security system. Seller is willing to leave most childcare related items for a new owner.
