Owner Occupier Highlights

This opportunity is only available for owner users. Northshore has been fortunate to sign a diverse tenant mix that has created a vibrant development. The current tenant mix gives an Owner Occupant the opportunity to co-habitat a building with the benefit of 1) future growth opportunity 2) rental income to offset the cost of ownership. Ownership also allows for an Owner Occupant to lock in their base occupancy costs long term while benefiting from tax depreciation benefits and value appreciation.

Northshore's strategic location on UT-145 (Pioneer Crossing) offers great visibility and accessibility, and is only 3.5 miles from I-15 and 1.6 miles from Redwood Road and 2.8 miles from Mountain View Corridor. The property's new design and functional features, such as multiple loading options, make it highly attractive for a range of industrial tenants. Additionally, the site's proximity to major transportation routes facilitates efficient logistics operations, enhancing its appeal to potential occupiers.

Site Amenities

Northshore's amenities are designed to support industrial operations and enhance tenant satisfaction. The property's location in Northern Utah County is ideal for employee retention and recruitment, providing easy access to major roads and highways. With its frontage along UT-145 (Pioneer Crossing), tenants benefit from excellent exposure and connectivity. Additionally, Saratoga Springs is experiencing significant population growth, attracting an expanding workforce to the area. This combination of location, growth, and amenities makes Northshore a highly desirable industrial property. Future UTA Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) stop just south of the site.

Mountain View Corridor

Connecting Communities

Mountain View Corridor will eventually be a 35-mile freeway from I-80 in Salt Lake County to SR-73 in Utah County. MVC currently includes a 27-mile multi-use trail and 22 pedestrian and bicycle bridges and crossings, which run adjacent to the entire corridor. Additionally, there are nine miles of striped bike lanes that run in each direction from Porter Rockwell Boulevard to Old Bingham Highway.

Phased Construction Approach

Mountain View Corridor is using a phased construction approach designed to balance transportation needs with available funds. Initial construction includes two lanes in each direction with signalized intersections and biking and walking trails. Future construction phases will build out the remainder of the corridor by converting intersections to interchanges and adding inside lanes to achieve a fully functional freeway.

Utah County Overview

Utah County is the second most populous county in the state. It is located south of Salt Lake City, nestled between the Wasatch Mountains and Utah Lake.

Demographics

For the last 10 years, Utah County has been known for its strong employment growth, low vacancy rates, and steadily increasing rental rates. From 2020-2022, the County has added over 43,000 new residents. In 2023 Utah County had an estimated population of 707,602 people with a median age of 27.1 and a median household income of $82,893. The median property value in Utah County is $486,270 and the homeownership rate is 70.9%. In the next 5 years, the population is expected to grow by more than 62,000 people, an 8.76% increase, or 1.69% per year.

According to the Gardner Institute, Utah County's population is projected to add 674,000 residents between 2020 and 2060, resulting in a population of 1.3 million and driving over one-third of total regional growth. Tremendous job growth, family-friendly environments, and the strongest economy in the nation make Utah County one of the most attractive places to live in the United States.

Highlights

- Provo-Orem has ranked as the #1 Best Performing City in the country, according to the Milken Institute. This ranking is based on important factors including job creation, wage growth, and output growth.
- Utah County's economy is one of the most diverse economies in the state.
