LOCATION OVERVIEW

Prime Lake Oswego location with proximity to I-5, Boones Ferry Rd, and Kruse Way. Walking distance to restaurant and retail amenities including Zupan's, La Provence, Jefe, Babica Hen, Riccardo's, Albertson's, and more.

About the submarket:

Nestled just 8 miles south of downtown Portland, Lake Oswego stands out as one of the Portland metro area's most prestigious and sought-after submarkets. Known for its affluence, natural beauty, and exceptional quality of life, Lake Oswego offers an ideal blend of residential charm and commercial opportunity. With a population of over 40,000 and one of the highest per capita incomes in Oregon, the city attracts both discerning residents and businesses. A vibrant downtown, high-end retail, and professional office corridors anchor the area.

Lake Oswego benefits from a highly educated workforce, top-rated public schools, and strong civic engagement, making it a prime location for professional services and medical practices. Easy access to Interstate 5 and Highway 217 provides seamless connectivity to Portland, the Silicon Forest tech cluster, and the broader Willamette Valley.

Whether you're targeting high-net-worth consumers or a corporate presence in an amenity-rich environment, Lake Oswego offers the perfect balance of accessibility, prestige, and economic stability.
