Property Summary

The Midtown Row Portfolio is a premier mixed-use asset in the heart of Williamsburg, Virginia, comprising two well-established shopping centers—Colonial (95,455 SF) anchored by Food Lion and Marshalls, and Lamonticello (63,157 SF) anchored by Grocery Outlet and Ace Hardware—seamlessly integrated into the larger Midtown Row development, which consists of 60,961 sf of retail and office space. This high-performing destination includes 240 fully leased student apartments housing 624 residents, and a pedestrian-friendly layout anchored by a central green programmed with year-round events.

Positioned directly adjacent to the College of William & Mary and less than a mile from Colonial Williamsburg, Midtown Row sits at the nexus of the city's academic, cultural, and tourism engines, drawing from over 6 million annual visitors and a regional daytime population of 68,000+. According to Placer.ai data, Midtown Row generates approximately 2.4 million visits annually, with foot traffic increasing approximately 22% since 2023—reflecting strong consumer engagement and sustained leasing momentum. With its irreplaceable location, diversified tenancy, and continued growth trajectory, Midtown Row represents the future of Williamsburg's urban core.

Midtown Row Powers Local Growth

Featuring national brands, local boutiques, dining, fitness, and essential services, Midtown Row drives daily traffic and strengthens Williamsburg's urban core.

Location Highlights

Midtown Row is the most strategically positioned and consistently trafficked mixed-use destination in Williamsburg. Located at the market's primary retail intersection and directly connected to William & Mary, the project blends high-visibility storefronts with built-in demand from students, residents, and visitors. With a fully leased residential component, curated national tenants, and ongoing community activation, Midtown Row offers retailers a rare opportunity to plug into an already thriving ecosystem. Enhancing its appeal even further, the nearby 200,000-square-foot Williamsburg Sports and Events Center (WISC) is set to open in 2026, bringing a significant new driver of traffic and regional attention to the area.

Why Williamsburg

Overview

Williamsburg is located within the Historic Triangle, which includes three historic colonial communities situated on the Virginia Peninsula, bounded by the York River to the north and the James River to the south. Greater Williamsburg, with a population of more than 94,000, has remained one of the fastest-growing regions in Virginia over the past three decades. Known for its compelling history, Williamsburg is also home to the nation's largest outdoor educational living museum and offers a vibrant mix of cultural and recreational activities that appeal to a wide range of interests. From a thriving music and arts scene to highly rated dining and outdoor adventures, the area blends historical charm with modern appeal.

While Williamsburg continues to serve as a cultural anchor of the Historic Triangle, its economy is driven by a diverse array of sectors, including education, tourism, defense, and healthcare. The College of William & Mary, one of the nation's oldest and most respected institutions, plays a significant role in the local economy alongside major employers such as Anheuser-Busch/InBev, Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, Yorktown Naval Weapons Station, Sentara Medical Center, and SeaWorld Parks & Entertainment.

New Sports Facility

The Greater Williamsburg Sports and Events Center, a 200,000 SF indoor facility set to open in 2026, will feature 12 basketball courts convertible for volleyball, pickleball, and turf sports—including the largest conversion turf system in the U.S. Designed to host national tournaments, community events, and recreational programs, the center aims to boost regional sports tourism and serve as a premier destination for athletes and families.
