ABOUT COMPTON

Compton is a centrally located industrial submarket within Los Angeles County, offering excellent access to the I-105 and I-110 freeways, the Ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach, and LAX. Its proximity to major logistics corridors and dense consumer populations makes it an ideal location for manufacturing, warehousing, and distribution users. With limited availability across the region, Compton continues to see strong demand from industrial users seeking functional space in a strategic location.
