PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Located in the most visible part of the building—at the traffic signalized corner of King St. and Bridge St.—is an approximately 1,320-square-foot, self-contained office space. The Alera Group, formerly Webber and Grinnell Insurance, occupies the remainder of the building. The available space features three private offices, a large open area suitable for cubicles or a shared workspace, and two bathrooms, as well as a private entrance from the parking lot. Large windows and abundant natural light, combined with the prime location, make this an attractive office opportunity.
