CONWAY, AR

Located within the Central Arkansas MSA, Conway is the county seat of Faulkner County and the second-largest city in Central Arkansas. Among cities with at least 50,000 people, Conway is the 63rd fastest-growing U.S. city, with its population rising by 2.5% to 67,617 in 2022 from 65,965 in 2021. Further, the Little Rock-North Little Rock-Conway metro area is one of the country's top 10 best places for young professionals to live.

Conway's long-standing classification as a college town is driven by the three academic institutions that call the city home: the University of Central Arkansas (UCA), Hendrix College and Central Baptist College. UCA sees an annual student population of ~12,000, making it one of the largest college institutions in Arkansas.

Conway is also known for its rich business sector; top employers in the city include Acxiom, UCA, Westrock Coffee, Conway Regional Health and DXC, among others. Notably, Westrock Coffee leased +/- 1,000,000 SF in 2023 to improve its roasting and manufacturing plant in Conway.

Unlike most suburban areas, the majority of Conway residents work within Faulkner County. Combined with surrounding areas, that includes a workforce of over 354,000 within a 45-minute commute. And, with three four-year universities, new talent is always pouring in.
