DANVILLE, CALIFORNIA

The Town of Danville is located in Contra Costa County, California 6 miles south of Walnut Creek and 15 miles east of Oakland. Danville is noted for its high quality of life with top rated schools, low crime rate, and small-town feel. The charming downtown has numerous small shops, restaurants, and coffee shops.

Regarded as an affluent community, Danville has some of the most exclusive country clubs and highest housing prices in the Bay Area.

The approximate population base is 45,000 and median household income is $200,000 which provides an affluent customer base for local businesses and retailers.

San Ramon Valley Blvd is the Town’s main thoroughfare providing ease of access to a variety of shopping and dining. Leisure activities abound, including hiking and biking in Las Trampas Wilderness, Village Theater in Downtown, year-round weekly farmers market, and weekly summer festivals including Hot Summer Nights and Art in the Park.
