OAKWOOD SENIOR LIVING

Olde Town East

Olde Towne East is a historic neighborhood located just east of downtown Columbus, Ohio, making it a convenient location for those who work or play in the city. The neighborhood is known for its Victorian and early 20th century homes, many of which have been restored and preserved.

The area was originally developed in the late 19th century as a residential district for Columbus' wealthy and influential citizens. Many of the homes in Olde Towne East were built during this time period and feature ornate architectural details and large, landscaped yards.

More recently, the neighborhood has undergone a revitalization, attracting many new residents to the area. Olde Towne East is a diverse and vibrant community with a mix of residents, including families, young professionals and artists.

The neighborhood is home to a number of local businesses, including cafes, restaurants and boutique shops. The annual Olde Towne East Art Affair, which takes place in the summer, is a popular event that showcases the work of multiple local artists and artisans.

Olde Towne East is also home to several parks and green spaces, including Franklin Park, which features a playground, picnic areas and a nationally recognized conservatory.

Olde Towne East is a beautiful and historic neighborhood that offers a unique mix of old-world charm and modern amenities. Whether you're looking for a historic home or a trendy new cafe, the neighborhood has something for everyone.
