CITY OF COSTA MESA

The City of Costa Mesa is a vibrant and dynamic community in Orange County, located in Southern California's coastal region. Known as the "City of the Arts®," it blends cultural energy, commerce, and a strong sense of community.

Costa Mesa lies just inland, with its southern border about one mile from the Pacific Ocean, and is bordered by Newport Beach to the south, Irvine to the east, and Huntington Beach to the west. The city covers approximately 16 square miles and has a population of around 109,000 residents, offering a balance of suburban charm and urban sophistication.

Costa Mesa enjoys a reputation as a cultural and economic hub. It is home to renowned arts and performance venues such as the Segerstrom Center for the Arts and South Coast Repertory Theater, along with South Coast Plaza, one of the largest shopping destinations in the United States. The city also supports a thriving business community, including creative industries, design firms, and surf-wear companies that reflect both its coastal roots and entrepreneurial spirit.

Residential neighborhoods range from quiet suburban streets to vibrant mixed-use districts. The city is well connected by major freeways and its close proximity to the beach, making it an appealing choice for residents who live, work, and play throughout Orange County and beyond.

With its temperate Mediterranean climate, cultural amenities, and diverse activities, Costa Mesa offers a unique blend of suburban comfort and urban vibrancy, making it a desirable place to live, work, and visit.
