This 20-acre, turnkey mountain resort and event campus is ideally positioned for redevelopment, repositioning, or continued operation as a hospitality and retreat destination in the heart of Arizona's White Mountains. Set among towering pines, the property is currently improved to accommodate up to 176 overnight guests across multiple lodging structures, supported by 25 restrooms and 23 showers, with infrastructure designed to host events of up to 300 attendees. The scale and layout lend themselves well to weddings, corporate retreats, conferences, wellness programs, destination events, and group hospitality uses. The campus is thoughtfully designed for large-group functionality and guest experience, offering a broad mix of indoor and outdoor amenities including an adventure challenge course, zipline and low-ropes course, 3D archery range, sports courts and fields, outdoor gathering areas, fire circle, and curated recreational spaces that translate seamlessly to team-building, guest programming, and event activation. With extensive existing infrastructure already in place, the property presents a compelling value-add and redevelopment opportunity—whether repositioned as a boutique mountain resort, wedding and event venue, wellness retreat, conference center, or expanded hospitality campus. Rarely does a property of this size, setting, and operational readiness become available in Pinetop-Lakeside.
