Metra trains offer service in Geneva via Union Pacific West Line.

Geneva is located in Kane County, between St. Charles and Batavia. Known for its historical architecture, unique stores, restaurants, and scenic views, Geneva is a picturesque destination. Settled in the 1830s by Daniel Shaw Haight, it was incorporated as a village in 1867. Geneva Community School District 304 serves the area and is comprised of one high school, two middle schools and six elementary schools. Geneva Commons provide a bustling shopping option and the downtown historic district offers numerous dining and independent retail venues. The city has a number of recreational spaces that include Fabyan Forest Preserve and the Fox River Bike Trail.
