The word "DALLAS" is written in large, bold, black letters in the center of the map. A red pin with a white star icon is located in the northeast quadrant of the map, near the intersection of I-75 and I-635. A grey square with a white airplane icon is located in the southwest quadrant of the map, near the intersection of I-35 and I-20. The map also shows several lakes: Lewisville Lake, Grapevine Lake, Trophy Club, Southlake, Joe Rigg Lake, Ray Hubbard Lake, and Lewis Lake. Other cities and towns shown include Frisco, Allen, Plano, Carrollton, Irving, Balch Springs, Rockwall, and McKinney. The map is oriented with North at the top. A compass rose is located in the bottom right corner of the map. The map is a stylized representation of the Dallas area, with roads and water bodies clearly marked. The red pin is a prominent feature, indicating the location of the Dallas office. The grey square with the airplane icon is also a notable feature, likely representing an airport or a specific location of interest. The overall layout of the map is clear and easy to read, with labels for cities, roads, and landmarks. The use of color and icons helps to distinguish between different types of features on the map. The map is a useful tool for navigating the Dallas area and for identifying key locations.
