PROPERTY SUMMARY

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Secure this highly visible second-generation former Arby's QSR positioned on Jacksonville, NC's primary commercial artery. Located between the two main entrances to Camp Lejeune Marine Base which is home to more than 163,000 people with a median age of 23.3 years old. This recession proof market has a constant influx of military families in addition to the stable residential population of Jacksonville. With the flexible CC zoning, this value-add property is well positioned for an owner user to quickly retrofit and open for business or redevelopment. The above average daytime population provides for a triple peak traffic pattern of consistent business opportunity through sustained customer presence.
