Athens, Georgia has been named one of the "South's Best College Towns" by Southern Living Magazine, March 2022, and one of the "25 Best College Towns and Cities," Travel + Leisure, September 9, 2022. It is a vibrant college town filled with creative energy where you will find plenty to do and see. With gardens, museums, breweries, restaurants, and the live music that has made the town famous, there is something for everyone.

Over 200 bars, restaurants, and businesses line the streets downtown, taking advantage of the proximity to the university and the volume of tourists that visit the area on a near-constant basis. National brands like Chick Fil A, Mellow Mushroom, Target, Starbucks, and Urban Outfitters, all have a presence in downtown Athens along with local favorites like Condor Chocolates, Osteria Athena, Porterhouse Grill, and dozens more.

The University of Georgia's main campus is centrally located in downtown Athens, but its presence extends far beyond that. There are additional facilities and countless students living in the surrounding counties, many of whom travel to Athens to eat, drink, and shop on a regular basis. But it isn't just the 40,000 students that call Athens home that make an impact on local businesses. Move-in weekend, orientation, graduations and of course game days bring thousands of visitors to the Classic City, and those visitors spent close to $340 million in 2021 (GA Dept of Economic Development).

The majority of residents in this area fall within two main consumer profiles: Dorms to Diplomas and College Towns (Esri location data). Meaning:

- They have Part-time jobs help to supplement their lifestyles.
- Are impulse buyers who experiment with different brands.
- Are heavily influenced by celebrity endorsements and trends.
- Dress to impress with the latest fashions of the season.
- Try to eat healthy, but often settle for fast food.
- Are always connected.
