EBERHARDT INDUSTRIAL AREA OVERVIEW

Workforce, accessibility and low costs are three strengths that propel key industries and boost business expansion in Temple, Texas.

Temple's workforce is bolstered by technically skilled veterans from nearby Fort Hood. Each year, an average of 3,600 soldiers transition out of Fort Hood and choose to live and work in Central Texas.

Temple continues to attract national and global companies in Texas's key industries: manufacturing, business support services, health and life sciences, and logistics and distribution.

Located at the crossroads of I-35 and I-14 and with access to the Union Pacific and BNSF rail lines, Temple, Texas' industrial industry offers robust interstate and freight distribution infrastructure. In addition, Temple is positioned with easy access to Austin-Bergstrom International Airport and Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport.

Connectivity and proximity to major markets go a long way in a region 2.5 hours from 28 million people. Bustling interstates, rail systems and five airports streamline point A to point B for Temple products and people.

EBERHARDT INDUSTRIAL TEMPLE MANUFACTURING

MANUFACTURING

Temple is where location, infrastructure and workforce converge in one of Texas' most cost-competitive markets.

AUSTIN'S INDUSTRIAL GATEWAY

One hour north of Austin and home to 1,600 acres of developed business park sites, Temple is a launchpad for companies to make and move products. The world's leading producers of everything from engineered surfaces (Wilsonart) to comfort cushioning products (Carpenter) to food packaging (Pactiv) are growing Temple's manufacturing industry, with industry employment up 28% between 2000 and 2010.

NOTABLE EMPLOYERS

THE CROSSROADS OF CENTRAL TEXAS

Located at the crossroads of I-35 and the planned I-14, Temple offers robust interstate and freight distribution infrastructure via Union Pacific and BNSF. Plus, Temple's location means it's less than 3 hours to Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston, Austin and San Antonio, providing easy access to several major international airports.

A SKILLED & GROWING WORKFORCE

Private industry leaders and educational institutions work together in Temple to fill a pipeline of tomorrow's production and engineering talent.

Since 2014 Temple ISD high school students have been able to explore manufacturing careers through Wildcat Workforce, the Career and Technical Education program at Temple High School. The program focuses on twelve career clusters, with their Business & Finance, Information Technology, Manufacturing, and Transportation, Distribution & Logistics focuses applying directly to the manufacturing sector. There are eight area college and university institutions including Temple College, Temple Technical College, University of Mary Hardin-Baylor and Baylor University.

Temple's workforce, with an average industrial wage at $14.08 an hour, is further bolstered by technically skilled veterans from nearby Fort Hood. Each year, an average of 3,600 soldiers transition out of Fort Hood and choose to live and work in Central Texas.

EBERHARDT INDUSTRIAL TEMPLE LOGISTICS AND DISTRIBUTION

LOGISTICS & DISTRIBUTION

Temple is the logistics hub in Central Texas, with distribution operations for Walmart, McLane Company and more benefiting from a central location, outstanding infrastructure and reliable workforce.

THE CROSSROADS OF CENTRAL TEXAS

Temple is located at the crossroads of I-35 and the planned I-14, with connections to all of Texas' 28 million people, the Southeast, Mexico and beyond. BNSF operates a major switchyard in Temple with connection to major ports and regional and international airports are all within fast reach. Because of its strategic connection to major consumer markets, more than $750 billion in goods travel I-35 each year.

INFORMATION ABOUT BROKERAGE SERVICES

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

2-10-2025

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction;
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
