GRIMES COUNTY - MARKET OVERVIEW

Grimes County is located in southeastern Texas, nestled between the Houston metropolitan area and the Bryan-College Station region. It is bordered by Brazos, Madison, Montgomery, Waller and Washington counties, making it strategically positioned within the Texas Triangle - one of the most economically dynamic areas in the state. The county seat is Anderson, while Navasota serves as its largest city and a key commercial hub. With convenient access to major highways such as State Highways 6 and 105, Grimes County benefits from proximity to major urban centers while maintaining a predominantly rural character. This location offers a balance of small-town charm and connectivity to larger economic markets, making it attractive for both residential developments and business investments.

As of May 2025, Grimes County is experiencing steady economic and population growth. The county's gross domestic product reached approximately $1.5 billion in 2023, reflecting a 9% year-over-year increase. Employment has risen by 7% between 2018 and 2023, outpacing national trends, though the labor force participation rate has declined slightly to 53.4%.

The county is also experiencing significant commercial real estate growth, driven by its strategic location and improved infrastructure. The completion of the Aggie Expressway has enhanced connectivity, making the county more attractive for businesses and developers. This improved access has spurred interest in both residential and commercial projects, particularly in southern areas such as Navasota and along SH 249 corridor. The county's affordable land prices, coupled with its proximity to larger markets, positions Grimes County as a promising area for continued economic and real estate developments.

Major employment sectors include construction, retail trade, and healthcare. The unemployment rate stands at 4.26% as of late 2024. In the housing market, median home values range from $255,000 in Navasota to over $500,000 in Anderson, with an overall county average of about $313,900. Home sale prices have increased by up to 12% year-over-year, and homes are spending an average of 25 to 80 days on the market, depending on the source.

Demographically, the county has grown by 14.5% [adding 4,104 residents] since 2018 and is projected to grow another 15.8% by 2028. The median household income is $67,080, and per capita is nearly $44,000, though about 13.3% of residents live below the poverty line.

Local leaders have prioritized economic development initiatives, including improving the county's online presence and leveraging state incentive programs like the Texas Enterprise Fund. The Navasota Grimes County Chamber of Commerce also plays an active role in supporting business growth and community engagement.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction;
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
