THE FASTEST-GROWING CITY IN AMERICA IS ONE YOU'VE PROBABLY NEVER HEARD OF

The nation's fastest-growing cities are nearly all in the South. For the second year in a row, Georgetown, TX, a suburb about 30 miles north of Austin, experienced the most growth. Its population ballooned by about 14.4%, according to a recent U.S. Census Bureau report. The bureau looked at population growth between July 1, 2021, and July 1, 2022, in cities with at least 50,000 residents to come up with its list.

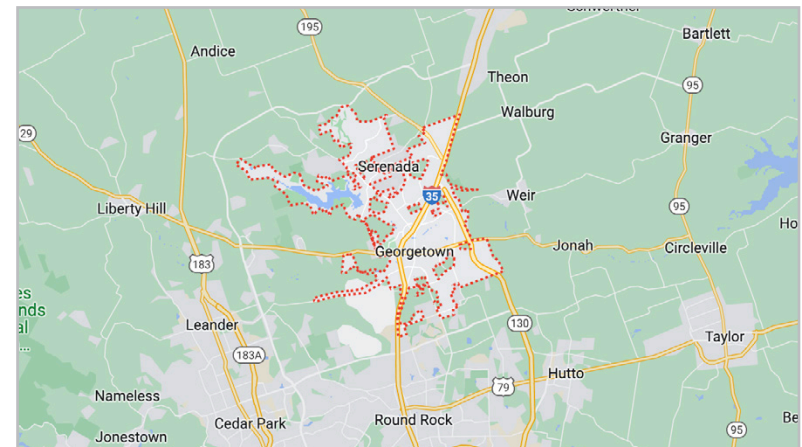

The median home list price in Georgetown was $525,000 in April, according to Realtor.com® data. That's about $175,000 less than the $700,000 price tag in Austin. Plus, there are homes available in Georgetown. More than half of the homes in the suburb listed on Realtor.com are new construction. The city is known as the "Red Poppy" capital of Texas for the flowers planted all over the city and hosts a red poppy festival every April to celebrate its nickname. It is also home to Southwestern University.

"Austin got so much more expensive that people flocked to the suburbs because they were somewhat less expensive," says Gary Maler, executive director of the Texas Real Estate Research Center at Texas A&M University in College Station, TX. "There is just a lot of construction. ... We haven't been able to build it fast enough."

Eight of the 10 fastest-growing cities were in the South: four in Texas (three suburbs of Austin and one outside of Dallas), three cities in Florida, and one in Arizona about 45 minutes east of Phoenix. All of the cities, except Santa Cruz, CA, boast significant numbers of newly constructed homes. That additional housing is likely to have helped many of these places attract new residents.

"Jobs in Texas outpace many other states. There's a pro-business attitude in Texas. There's a variety of cultures and sceneries in Texas. We have relatively lower costs than other states, although we're starting to lose that," says Maler. However, the fastest-growing cities weren't the largest. New York City with its 8.3 million residents, Los Angeles with nearly 4 million residents, and Chicago with about 2.7 million residents were the largest cities in the nation.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
