EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

415 and 411 Westlake Avenue are located on Westlake Avenue, South Lake Union's "Main Street." They comprise approximately 19,440 square feet of developable land, with a planned development program consisting of 342 multi-family units in 452,000 square feet of above grade and below grade development capacity. The owners have begun the entitlement process seeking to preserve development options for a potential Purchaser, which have included completing the first Early Design Guidance (EDG) round of the City of Seattle's Master Use Permit (MUP) process, as further described in the Development Opportunity section of this memorandum.

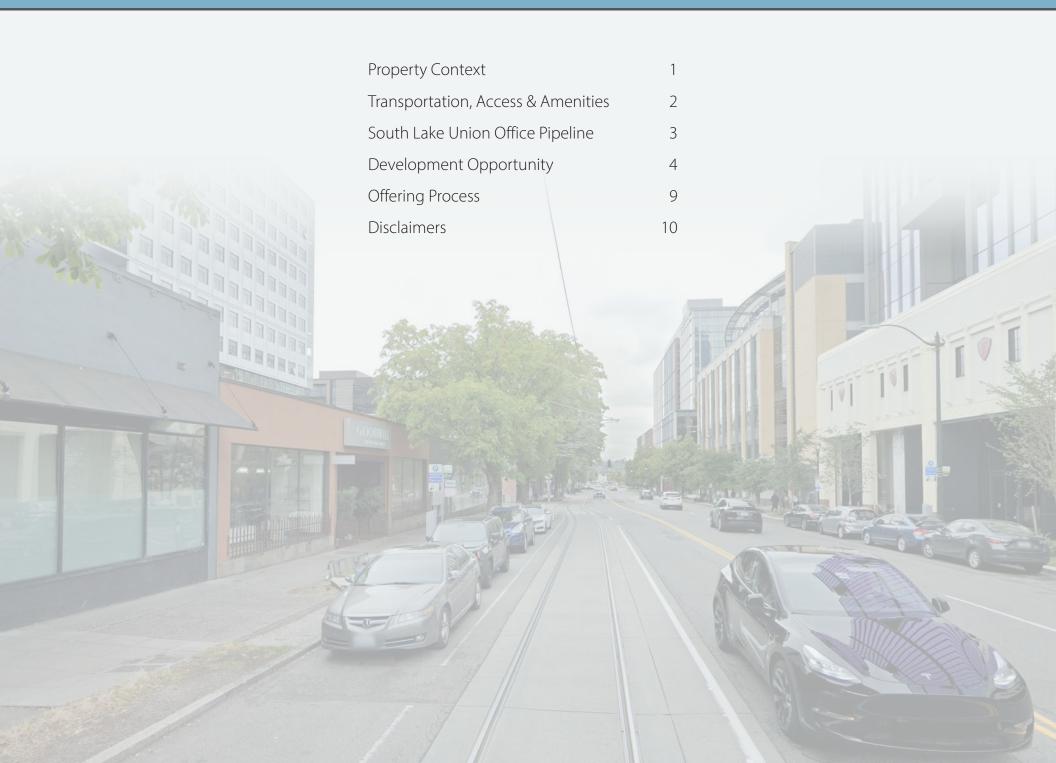

All existing uses on the property can be relocated.

- Union Church ("Union"), founded by the University Presbyterian Church, owns and occupies 415 Westlake and seeks to relocate, subject to timing of the property sale. Union currently occupies 7,230 square feet in its facility, which is comprised of the 415
 Westlake event space and Café Kakao. There are also 20 parking stalls in a surface lot adjacent to the building. Union is assuming a relocation offsite, but, if desired by the Purchaser, may consider exchanging a portion of land value for a commercial condominium interest in the new development.
- 411 Westlake comprises a 4,800 sf building and six (6) surface parking stalls. The building is leased to a dog daycare through August 2030 with a landlord right to terminate anytime after August 2028 upon 12 months notice.

Basic Facts

The Property is located on the west side of Westlake Ave and consists of two parcels with a total land area of 19,440 square feet located in the heart of South Lake Union (SLU). The combined parcels form a rectangular shape, approximately 108 feet by 180 feet. The Property slopes gradually to the north towards Lake Union. Situated in the middle of a dynamic mix of office, residential, institutional/R&D and retail uses, it is one of only three remaining sites in South Lake Union that allow a residential tower.

Zoning

The Property has a zoning designation of SM-SLU 175/85-280. The maximum heights and floor areas can be found in the table to the right for the respective zoning designations. SM-SLU 175/85-280 allows for a residential tower of 280' (with ground-floor retail) or an entirely commercial/lab building with a base FAR of 8.0. The maximum residential floorplate for a tower floor above 65' in height is 50% of the project lot area up to a maximum of 10,500 SF, or approximately 9,720 square feet.

South Lake Union Tower Sites

In South Lake Union, zoning allows for one residential tower per half block if there is not currently a tower (commercial or residential) on that half block.

As such, the 400 block of Westlake Ave N is one of the few remaining tower sites available in South Lake Union, as illustrated in the graphic above. The owners have taken steps to preserve the tower development opportunity. The development will have 360-degree protected views above 120 feet.

DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY

Residential and commercial uses are allowed on the Property, though the highest and best use is likely a residential tower. The high-rise project is vested (Seattle Department of Construction and Inspections project 3040230-LU), with a complete Master Use Permit submitted on 3/28/23.

Weber Thompson www.weberthompson.com has completed Early Design work for the potential project.

OPTION 1: NORTH FACING BUILDING SECTION

Option 3 provides a stack of massing elements with different proportions and shapes. The aim is to provide a more iconic tower with a distinctive style through the incorporation of angles. This massing option proposes the tower at the northernmost location of the site.

NOTE: Option 2 (and other options) have been explored and can be shared as needed.

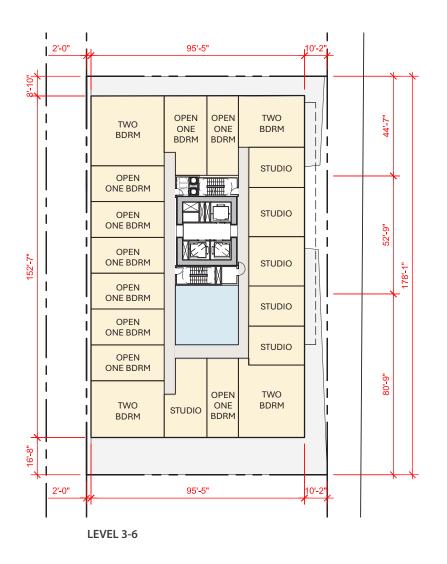

Floorplans

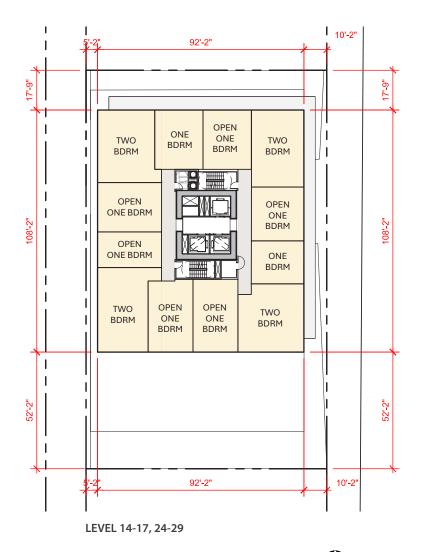

The current design assumes an event venue in the ground floor for Union Church; that plan can be amended to substitute additional retail, residential and amenity uses if Union is not part of the development program.
