Property Overview

Anchored by Longs Drugs and local grocer Tamura's, Hau'ula Kai Shopping Center serves as a daily-needs destination for the surrounding coastal communities of Hau'ula, Laie, and Kahuku. The Center is located along Kamehameha Highway, the primary arterial serving the North Shore, and experiences approximately 16,371 vehicles in Annual Average Daily Traffic (AADT), offering excellent exposure to both local residents and visitors traveling to major destinations including the Polynesian Cultural Center, Laie Hawaii Temple, and the North Shore.

Developed in the 1960s, Hau'ula Kai Shopping Center is one of only two retail centers servicing the immediate trade area and features a complementary mix of national, regional, and local tenants such as USPS, Domino's, Baskin-Robbins, popular local restaurants, and daily service providers. With its oceanfront setting and the limited retail competition, this property presents an exceptional opportunity for operators seeking a North Shore location.
