Laredo, Texas

Laredo, Texas, stands as a beacon of economic vitality and opportunity in the heart of South Texas. With its strategic location along the US-Mexico border, Laredo has long been a hub of international trade and commerce. The city's economy thrives on its robust trade relationships, bolstered by its status as the largest inland port in the United States. As a result, Laredo enjoys a diverse and dynamic marketplace, attracting businesses and investors from across the globe.

The real estate sector in Laredo reflects this buoyant economy, with steady growth and demand across residential, commercial, and industrial properties. The city's favorable business climate, coupled with its proximity to major transportation routes, makes it an attractive destination for both local entrepreneurs and multinational corporations looking to establish or expand their operations. As a result, property values have appreciated steadily, presenting lucrative opportunities for investors and homeowners alike.

Laredo's retail landscape is equally vibrant, with a thriving mix of local boutiques, national chains, and specialty stores catering to diverse consumer preferences. The city's multicultural heritage adds to the richness of its retail offerings, with a wide array of authentic Mexican goods and cuisine contributing to the unique shopping experience. Additionally, Laredo benefits from a steady stream of cross-border shoppers from Mexico, further stimulating its retail sector and bolstering its reputation as a shopping destination.

Furthermore, Laredo's robust job market and low unemployment rate underscore its resilience and economic strength. The city's diverse economy, which encompasses sectors such as logistics, healthcare, education, and manufacturing, provides ample employment opportunities for residents and newcomers alike. With a skilled workforce and a supportive business environment, Laredo continues to attract talent and investment, positioning itself for sustained growth and prosperity in the years to come.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

2-10-2025

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
